

Commissioner Quintillis K. Lawrence was born on August 30, 1973, in Saginaw, Michigan.

Commissioner Lawrence graduated from Ruben Daniels High School in 1992. He graduated with a Political Science degree from Southern University at New Orleans in 1998. Commissioner Lawrence obtained his Juris Doctorate degree from the Southern University Law Center in 2001.

Commissioner Lawrence is a member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc, The Reserve Officers Association, and a former Executive Board Member of the Louisiana Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers. He practiced criminal law both as an Assistant District Attorney, and Assistant Public Defender, as well as having run a private practice for 10 plus years before being appointed Commissioner of the 19th Judicial District Court in July 2012.

Commissioner Lawrence is also a member of the Judge Advocate General's Corps in the United States Army Reserve. He has been a member of the Army Reserve for over 21 years, enlisting in 1991 while still in High School.